

Snuggery - World Book Day Celebrations 2025

24th Feb -7th March

Sharing books, reading to and singing songs with your children is a vital part of your child's development, it supports language development, enjoyment of reading, early understanding of print and social development.

To celebrate this year's Book Start pack, Edith Kerrison is proud to be working with The Book Trust and Newham Libraries on our World Book Day Celebration Events.

All 2-year-olds & their parents are invited to the following events;

Thur 27th Feb, AM 11.00-11.40/ PM 2.00:-2.40

Parents & Children visit Custom House Library for a fun filled reading session, we will also collect our brand new library cards. Younger siblings are welcome.

Join one of our Family Books sessions to receive your free book pack.

Sessions will run on Weds 26th, Fri 28th Feb & Mon 3rd, Tues 4th March at 10.50/2.40 pm or Thurs 6th Fri 7th March at 8.50/12.40

Please sign up for your preferred day with Manny!

Wednesday 5th March- 10.30/2.00

A visit to the local play park linked to our special book 'Zeki Goes To The Park.'

Thursday 6th March - Dressing up day

Your child is invited to dress up in their favourite colour or in as many different colours as possible- Let's turn our nursery into a wonderful reading rainbow!

Parental Engagement

You can support your child by

- Attending one of the family sessions to receive your free book box.
- Join our visit to Custom House Library
- Watching and talking about and joining in with our story and song videos on your 'My Learning Journal' account .
- Sharing and talking about the 'Zeki Goes To The Park' and 'All Aboard Train' books at home.
- Posting a picture of your child enjoying their books, or completing the book pack activities at home.
